This Spring, Haddon Hall will re-open its doors to the public with Mercatum - a spectacular seasonal artisan market featuring a line-up of the best artisans and makers from across the country.

Running from 27th – 29th March, the artisan market is a delight for the senses and features a wonderful array of stalls for visitors to explore. From 10am – 5pm, visitors can shop the finest crafts and learn new skills from talented artisans at drop-in workshops and demonstrations, whilst enjoying the atmospheric setting of the magnificent Hall, which will be awash with Easter décor and flowers.

New for 2020, Nordic Muse will be selling beautiful jewellery pieces and homeware, while Cedar Lifestyle will be showcasing the latest fragrances in their fabulous long-lasting candle range. Local artist, Rebecca Clitheroe will be selling a wonderful collection of illustrations and prints, while Erica Just will also be on hand selling a range of beautiful watercolour paintings.

For those who would like to find something unique for their home, The Rustic Log Store Company will be selling beautifully handcrafted garden furniture and Blackbird Coffee will also be tempting visitors with a variety of refreshments including coffee and prosecco.

Returning by popular demand, Bittersweet Chocolate will be getting families ready for Easter with their incredible range of Easter eggs and chocolate treats, while new artisans Creation Jewellery and Anne Chaisty will be selling their latest handmade jewellery collections.

Don't forget to grab something delicious to eat from Lydia's Perfectly Cake, who will be selling the best home bakes and Nelson's Distillery will also be serving up their award-winning gin.

Children can head to the Craft Area, where they can enjoy a range of crafts and face painting, while families can enjoy an array of live music, with performances from local bands and choirs throughout the weekend.
